

EXPECTED SCHOOL-WIDE LEARNING RESULTS (ESLR's)

COLLABORATIVE WORKERS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Foster opportunities to develop and maintain positive relations within socially diverse settings.
- Use effective leadership and group skills while establishing and accomplishing significant goals.
- Teach others significant competencies and facilitate their growth and development.
- Understand and respect the functions of various group roles.

SELF-DIRECTED LEARNERS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Plan for the future by setting priorities and achievable goals.
- Implement and monitor effective goal-setting strategies.
- Accept responsibility for self and groups.
- Utilize effective application of skills to overcome obstacles.

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATORS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Communicate both reflectively and critically.
- Foster effective communication for all students in a variety of situations.
- Receive and interpret the messages of others.
- Implement technological tools.

HEALTHY INDIVIDUALS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Create and adapt to diverse situations and individual differences.
- Exhibit self-discipline, a strong work ethic, and accept individual and group responsibility.
- Display self-worth through positive choices.
- Establish and practice appropriate physical and mental health.

COMMUNITY PARTICIPANTS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Become exemplary citizens with life-long respect for learning, democratic values, and tolerance for world-wide diversity.
- Act ethically and responsibly.
- Actively improve the quality of life in school, community, state, and nation-wide.

COMPLEX THINKERS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Demonstrate higher order thinking skills through application, analysis, synthesis, and evaluation.
- Generate images to represent significant concepts.
- Generate logical, effective decision making, and problem solving processes practically.

QUALITY PRODUCERS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Develop, create, and support intellectual, artistic, practical, and physical products.
- Implement and use advanced technology.
- Pursue and accomplish challenging goals.
- Demonstrate a strong work ethic, competence, and confidence to be effective workers and citizens.